Guildford. Old Houses. The number of old houses in this picturesque town on the Wey is remarkable, and some of them are well worthy of inspection. The town itself goes back in history for well nigh a thousand years, and there are not many quainter or prettier towns in England, while the surrounding country is charming and beautiful.

See Miss Jones, & Take her Upstairs, & Blacken. It's better for her to do Them; I feel sure rather than Bridget & She wishes & wants to do so —
